Christmas in England

In England they don't celebrate Christmas on December 24th . They celebrate it December 25th instead.

December 24th, people hang their Christmas stockings by their fire place or by the end of their bed.

The next morning, they are filled with presents. There are also presents under the Christmas tree.

Christmas dinner is eaten at approximately 2 in the afternoon with roast goose, Christmas pudding and different pies.

Christmas card

A man named Henry Cole invented the Christmas card. Henry was a museum director in London.

He was a very busy man and had a lot of friends.

He knew a man who drew a Christmas card for him.

They made 1000 Christmas cards.

The cards Henry didn't use, he sold.

On the card it said "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year to you".

Rudolph

Do you know who Rudolph is?

A man named Robert invented Rudolph the reindeer.

He drew Rudolph for a colouring book.

The colouring book were given to children whose mother or father bought Christmas presents at a certain shop.

Rudolph was teased by the other reindeer because his nose was red.

Rudolph's name was actually Rollo to begin with.

A lot of songs and movies have been made about Rudolph the reindeer.
