Christmas Eve

December 24th is Christmas Eve in Denmark.
Many people celebrate with their families.

Some have to drive very far to get there, while others celebrate Christmas Eve at home.

In some places in the world, people don't celebrate Christmas on December 24th. In the USA and in England, they don't open their presents until the next morning — on December 25th.

Do You Remember? Christmas Eve

Find the answers to the questions in the text and write them on the line:

When do people celebrate Christmas in Denmark?

When is Christmas celebrated in England?

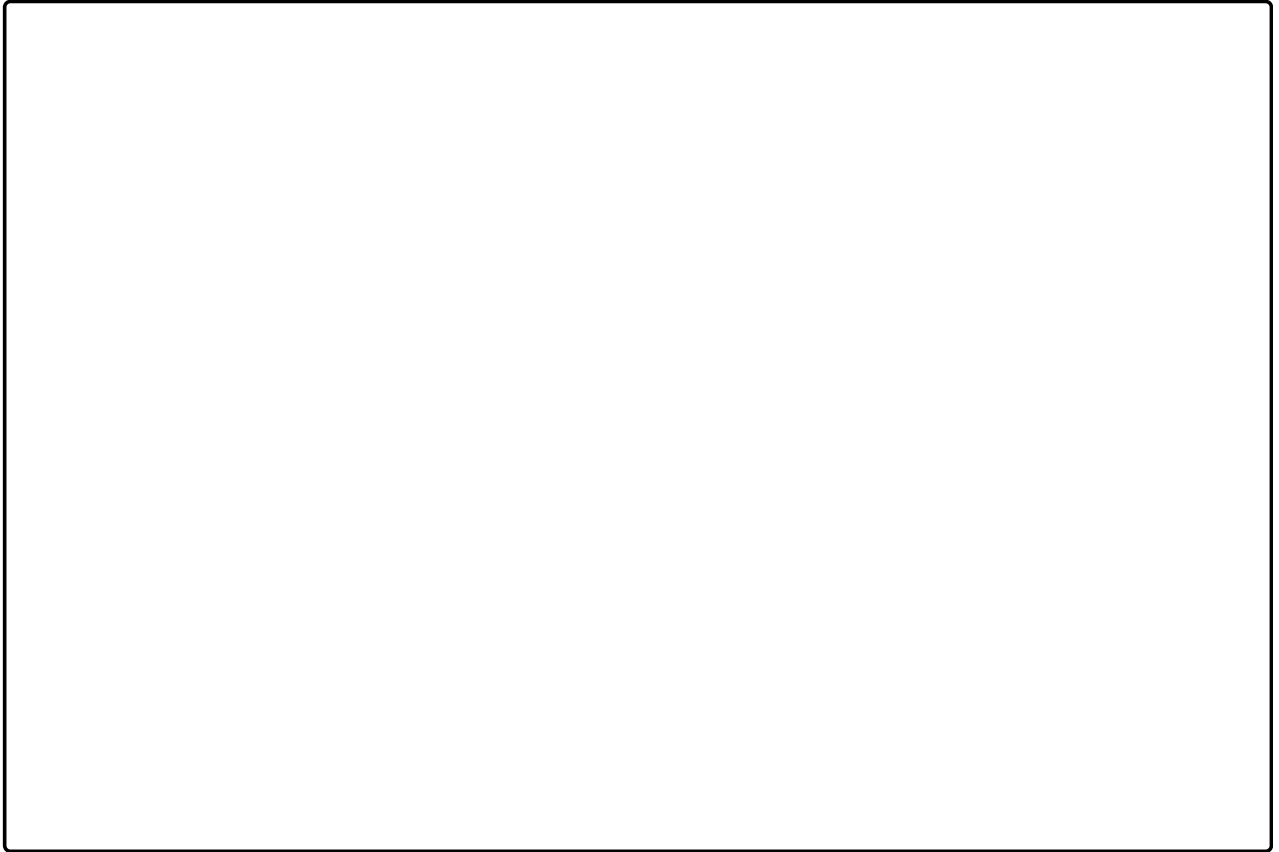

Who will you be celebrating Christmas with?

My Christmas Eve

Write and draw what your Christmas Eve is like.

Trafalgar Square

London is the capital of England.

If you visit London at Christmas time and you like Christmas trees, you should walk by the famous Trafalgar Square.

Since 1947, Trafalgar Square has been home to an enormous Christmas tree.

The tree is a gift from Norway to the people of London.

It is about 20 meters tall and covered in beautiful Christmas lights.

Read and Colour

The picture must be coloured – but how? Read the text below the picture and colour the different things as described.

- Draw three blue Christmas baubles.
- Draw four red Christmas baubles.
- Draw two purple Christmas baubles.
- Draw five grey Christmas baubles.
- Draw a yellow star at the top of the tree.
- Draw four candy canes on the Christmas tree.
- Draw Christmas lights on the tree's branches.
- Colour the trunk brown.
- Colour the Christmas tree green.
- Draw five presents under the tree.
- Draw yourself next to the tree.
- Draw a nice background.

Pass the Parcel

At Christmas, a lot of people play Pass the Parcel.

Everyone must bring a present and place it in the middle of the table.

When the game begins, you have to roll a six on the dice. If you roll a six, you may take a present.

When all the presents have been taken, you're allowed to steal from each other!

What are you allowed to do, when all the presents are taken?

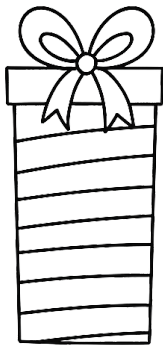

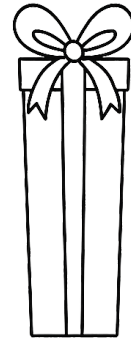

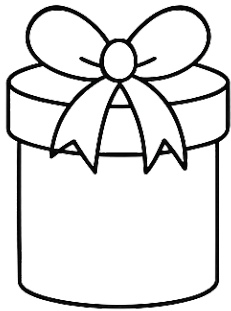

Have you ever played Pass the Parcel?

My Presents

Write which six gifts you want to bring for Pass the Parcel. Then colour the presents.

Lucia

December 13th is the day of Lucia.

Many schools have a Lucia parade. The pupils walk around the school and sing a song about Lucia.

Everyone carries a candle in their hands.
One pupil is chosen to be the Lucia bride.
She wears a wreath on her head.

Lucia lived around the year 300.

She is a saint.

Santa Claus

Santa Claus is a kind old man who brings presents to children at Christmas.

He has a long white beard and wears red clothes with white trim and a Christmas hat on his head.

Santa Claus is always cheerful and in a good mood. When he laughs, he says, "Ho, ho, ho!"

He gives presents to children who are nice and well-behaved.

Naughty children get nothing – or just a piece of coal in their Christmas stocking.
