Easter

Easter is celebrated in many countries.

Easter is a Christian tradition where we remember that Jesus was crucified, died, and rose again.

It is a public holiday which means that we get a break from school and work.

In Denmark and England, people often meet with their family to celebrate Easter and to share Easter eggs.

Some also send letters to friends and family.

If you're lucky, you'll get a visit from the Easter Bunny.

Palm Sunday

Easter begins with Palm Sunday.

Palm Sunday is the Sunday before the Easter week starts.

This was the day when Jesus came to Jerusalem, riding on a donkey.

He came to celebrate Easter which is originally a Jewish tradition.

When he arrived in Jerusalem, the people in the city shouted 'Save us!' while waving palm leaves.

That is why the day is called Palm Sunday.

Maundy Thursday

The next public holiday in Easter is called Maundy Thursday.

On this day, Jesus ate with his disciples.

Jesus introduced the communion.

Communion means to share something important, like a meal.

Jesus also washed the feet of his disciples.

One of Jesus' disciples was named Judas.

He was not nice to Jesus. In the evening, he kissed Jesus on the cheek and showed the guards in Jerusalem who Jesus was.

Jesus was then arrested.

Good Friday

Good Friday comes after Maundy Thursday.

Good Friday is the day when Jesus was sentenced to death.

Jesus was whipped.

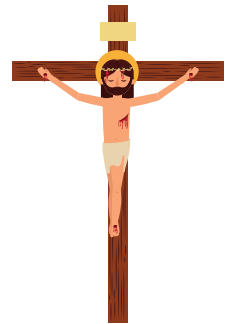

He was given a crown of thorns on his head.

Jesus was hung on the cross.

He hung on the cross until he died.

Afterwards, Jesus was buried in a cave.

On this day, many people
fly their flags at half-staff.

Easter Sunday

Easter Sunday is the day when Jesus rose from the dead.

The women discovered that the stone in front of Jesus' cave was gone.

They met an angel by his grave.

The angel told them that Jesus had risen.

The women told it to the people, who knew Jesus.

Easter Sunday is a happy day.

Many people have their Easter lunch on this day.
